(Childcare available only upon request - please call 434-2417 by Mar. 15)

Living out our Baptismal call – Can you count the many ways?

Did you know there are over 70 ministries and organizations within our parish that have volunteers living out their baptismal call to be Jesus to others?

We are a parish that focuses on helping people with their spiritual and physical needs. Come see many of the ministries and organizations, and hear faith stories of the love of Christ through the work of others.

You will be amazed!

- ❖ FORENSICS - Congratulations to our St. John the Baptist Forensic team on the completion of a very successful season. On Monday, March 8th, the team competed in the Grace meet hosted by Holy Family.
Congratulations to team members Matt Matuszak in poetry and Anna Patterson in four-minute speech for earning composite “A” scores.
Earning at least one “A+” in competition was Brianna Bohoh in poetry, the play-acting duo of Juliana Martin and Allison Schmocker with F-A-T, the play acting group of Sydney Herman, McKenna Korzenwieski and Katie Cribb with Sisterly Love, the play-acting group of Alexi Ash, Tonya Brice, Kayla Notz, Julia Noeldner, Carmen Roskos, and Emily Younkle with Cinder-Rabbit and Keri Salscheider in non-original oratory.
Earning two A+ ratings in the three rounds of competition were the play-acting group of Two Right Smart Fellows-Logan Denny, Isaac Seering, Anthony Vecera and Robert Bernsteen, the play acting group-The Runaway-Mathea Jaslowski and Maria Sausen, the play-acting group-School for Princesses-Megan Desotel, Olivia Mariani, Josie Jones, Emily Allen and Julia Urban, and the play-acting group-The Loafer-Gabby Calawerts, Katie Mennen, Carly Mueller, and Lauren Seidl.
Out of thirteen schools competing, St. John’s was one of three schools to receive all “A”s for their overall ratings. Of those three schools, St. John’s had the most events.
Thank you to all the coaches-Mrs. Padalino, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Schmitz, Mrs. Stratman, Ms. Gerlach, Mrs. Gaywont, Ms. Buckett, and Mrs. Fritsch.
- ❖ SOLO ENSEMBLE - On Saturday, February 27th many of our young St. John’s musicians performed in the Christian Band Association’s annual solo & ensemble festival at St. Matthew School in Green Bay. Events ranged from instrumental and piano solos to jazz ensemble. Congratulations to all those who participated – you all did a great job!
